She works so not sure she could steal away but I'll see what I have as a contact for her.

Chris please give me Jessica's phone number so I can call her and see if she can meet me today at Chase Bank. I need to get the wire transfer done today or we will not be able to get the trash cans as now there is someone else who wants the ones that are in stock. I just need about 10 minutes of Jessica's time.

I'm having scheduled meetings with agents most all day Monday. Tuesday is always hectic, but may be able to squeeze in before caravan sometime. Wednesday would be the best, as I don't have any appointments till 2 in the afternoon. Thursday out all day at managers meeting.

I would still suggest using the debit card sparingly. Checks are still best.... in that we have documentation on what it is for, copy of invoice, stub, etc..... more checks and balances. We know we are often questioned about particular payments, and at times when person having made payment is no longer on the board, so this way there is less issue and more to fall back on for info. My opinion, of course. Chris Serrano

Subject: privilege - Chase Bank account

Hi Chris,

When will we be able to go to the Chase bank next week. My schedule is ind of crazy and I need to pencil this in so we can get it done. I also need to get an actual debit card from the bank. When I spoke to Monica she said that the few vendors we have are paid via the checking account. Having an actual debit card will elimiate a lot of check writing and will be easier to reconciliation. Let me know.
